James Juffs appeared before the Board and filed the following protest on writing

To His Honorable the Board of County Commissioners
 Gentlemen:-

I the undersigned resident and taxpayer of Castle Hill District, Lemay County, Utah, do hereby protest against the incorporation of Castle Hill "Town" into a Town corporation as bounded and set forth in a petition filed with the County Clerk and presented to you for your approval on the following grounds:-

- 1st That the benefits that would be derived would be adequate to the damage sustained
- 2nd That my property is outside the town plat as laid in the county court.
- 3rd That my property might be appropriated to public use contrary to my will.
- 4th That it would subject my property to unjust taxation against my consent to support a corporation, into which I do not desire to belong.

Yours respectfully
 James Juffs

Adjourned

til 2 P. M.

Court reassembled at 2 P. M. all members present. The question of repairing & improving or if possible rebuilding the County Jail came up for consideration, and the several members of the board expressed their opinions as to the cheapest and best way & means to accomplish the intended and needed improvements; but agreed finally to defer the matter until it can be ascertained what the finances of the County will permit.

Instruction

On motion the Clerk was instructed to communicate with the Board of Commissioners of Supte County, to ascertain what could be mutually agreed upon to have the boundary line between this & Supte County more plainly marked by monuments at shorter intervals than now is the case or by ploughed furrows where such were practicable; the purpose of this to be for a more definite guide to sheep & stock men to enable them to determine in what County their flocks be grazing. It will aid the respective Assessors in doing their duty & protect the Counties financial rights as far as transitory herds are concerned.

Court adjourned til first Monday in December, 1901.
